Magistrate Breen Decides that Inspector Smith, Capt. Hogan and Their Sleuths Must Stand to put in a defense on July 14. Trial on Charges Made by Captives.

PRISONERS SAY THEY WERE BEATEN BY POLICE.

Herded Like Cattle into Patrol Wagons and Piled into Police Station Cells in Such Numbers that They Had to Fight for Elbow-Room.

Magistrate Breen in the Centre Street ecided to-day that Inspector Smith, Capt. Hogan, of the eMrcer street staand Detectives McAleeson and Lynch, who engineered the pool-room raids in which wholesale arrests of patrons were made recently, would have to explain their conduct by putting in a detailed defense.

For three hours the Magistrate lis tened to testimony of persons arrested in the aid as to their treatment at the hands of the police, upon which the peferred charges of oppression and asmult are based. The complainants of record

Joseph W. Cannon, of No. 156 West Sixty-sixth street, and Joseph P. Bell, of No. 78 West Sixty-eighth street. They were represented by Lawyer Ben-Jamin Steinhardt

Mr. Cannon when put on th stand declared that on the afternoon of June as he had gone into "The" Allen's place at No. 80 Sixth avenue to bet on a "suposed horse in an alleged horse race."

CannC: declared that ten men were squeeze into one cell half the size of a hall bedroom and there compelled to fight each other for elbow room for the remainder of the night.

When Bell was called to the stand he told a story even more eloquent with agony, and the finishing touches were put on by Stjeinhardt. The lawyer, among other things, declared that when he had inquired of Capt. Hogan about a warrant he was emphatically bidden o seek the warmth of the nether world. At the conclusion the court advised

BLUE-BLOODED DOGS.

Recent Purchases of Charles Froh-

Seven valuable old England sheep dogs which have been purchased by Charles Frohman and C. B. Dillingham, arrived to-day on the steamship Minnehaha. They were shipped directly to the Frohman-Dillingham kennels at White

A. Tilley, the former owner of the dogs. Bouncing Lass and Stylish Boy were exhibited at the bench show in New York last year, and they not only won prizes but were judged to be the finest brace of dogs of this breed that have been exhibited here in some time. A fine pair of pupples is Cedric Lass and Cedric Lady, out of Bouncing Lass by Stylish Lad.
